Shaykh Yusuf al-Qaradawi (1926–2022)

Egyptian Islamic scholar, wasatiyyah jurist, and one of the most prolific authors in contemporary Islamic thought — 170+ works.

Founder of the Faculty of Shari'ah at the University of Qatar; chairman of the International Union of Muslim Scholars.

This wiki focuses on his fiqh, ethics, and spiritual writings.

The LLM Wiki

9 books ingested and fully searchable.
48 concept pages with cross-references.
4 cross-book comparison syntheses.
~9.4 million characters of source text.

Every claim traces back to the exact chapter and page in the original work.

Built using the Karpathy LLM Wiki pattern for AI-searchable Islamic knowledge.

How This Halaqah Was Prepared

Five themes were selected from the wiki that are suitable for a family audience: Akhlaq (Good Character), Wasatiyyah (Moderation), Sabr (Patience), Marriage & Family Life, and Tazkiyah & Ikhlas (Purification & Sincerity).

Each theme is drawn from multiple books — Ethics in Islam, Faith and Life, The Lawful and the Prohibited, Approaching the Sunnah, and Fiqh al-Zakah — synthesising Qaradawi's positions across his corpus.

All Qur'anic verses and hadiths are cited. Arabic text is included where central to the topic.

Today's Five Themes

A journey through Qaradawi's wisdom for family life

1

Akhlaq — Good Character

The Prophet's mission: to perfect good morals

2

Wasatiyyah — The Middle Way

Balance between extremism and laxity

3

Sabr — Patience & Perseverance

Three dimensions of endurance

4

Marriage & Family Life

Affection, mercy, and simplicity

5

Tazkiyah & Ikhlas — Purification & Sincerity

Cleansing the soul, purifying intention

Theme 1: Akhlaq — Good Character

أَخْلَاقٌ | The heaviest deed on the scales

وَإِنَّكَ لَعَلَىٰ خُلُقٍ عَظِيمٍ

“And indeed, you are of a great moral character.” — Qur’an 68:4

“I have been sent to perfect good morals and conduct.”

— Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) (Ahmed 8952, al-Bukhari, al-Hakim)

What is Akhlaq?

Akhlaq = moral character — the inner self with its stable traits, good or evil.

Two types:

- Innate (gharizi): endowed by Allah
- Acquired (muktasab): through practice, companionship, and self-discipline

Key insight from al-Ghazali:

Character is what you ARE,
not what you APPEAR to do.

Qaradawi’s Key Positions

1. Akhlaq is the core Islamic concern.
The Prophet’s mission statement.
2. Good character outweighs ritual.
‘A person reaches the status of those who fast and pray by good character.’
3. Character is MUTABLE, not fixed.
‘Dogs and horses can be trained to be gentle, and people too.’ — al-Ghazali
4. Companionship shapes character.
Applies to friends, media, environment.

Theme 2: Wasatiyyah — The Middle Way

وَسْطِيَّة | Balance between extremes

وَكَذَلِكَ جَعَلْنَاكُمْ أُمَّةً وَسَطًا

“And thus We have made you a middle nation.” — Qur’an 2:143

“Your body owns a right over you, your eyes own a right over you, your family own a right over you.”

— Prophet Muhammad (PBUH), correcting three men who vowed extreme asceticism

In Worship

Not excessive asceticism, not mere ritualism.

The Prophet rejected:

- Fasting every day
- Praying all night
- Abstaining from marriage

Balance: worship + family
+ rest + social duties.

In Fiqh

Not blind taqlid,
not reckless innovation.

Qaradawi’s methodology:

- Renewed ijtihad grounded in authentic sources
- Middle position on zakat: neither expanding beyond classical categories nor restricting to four only.

In Ethics

Not extremism, not secularism.

Islam regulates freedom and keeps desire in check.

Wasatiyyah is NOT compromise between truth and falsehood — it is the straight path between two extremes of error.

Theme 3: Sabr — Patience & Perseverance

صَبْرٌ | Appearing 90+ times in the Qur'an

إِنَّ اللَّهَ مَعَ الصَّابِرِينَ

"Indeed, Allah is with the patient." — Qur'an 2:153

Dimensions of Sabr

90+

Times in the Qur'an

Allah's company promised

1. Sabr fi al-Ta'ah

Patience IN obedience.

Persisting in prayer,
fasting, zakat, and good deeds even when it is difficult or inconvenient.

2. Sabr 'an al-Ma'siyah

Patience AGAINST sin.

Steadfastly refusing temptation and resisting the pull of wrongdoing,
even when easy to commit.

3. Sabr 'ala al-Musibah

Patience IN affliction.

Enduring trials, loss,
and hardship without despair — paired with hope (raja') in Allah.

Theme 4: Marriage & Family Life

نِكَاح | Affection, mercy, and simplicity

وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ أَنْ خَلَقَ لَكُمْ مِنْ أَنْفُسِكُمْ أَزْوَاجًا لِتَسْكُنُوا إِلَيْهَا وَجَعَلَ بَيْنَكُمْ مَوَدَّةً وَرَحْمَةً

“And among His signs is that He created for you mates... and placed between you affection and mercy.” — Qur’an 30:21

“The best of marriages are the simplest ones. The best of dowries are the simplest ones.”

— Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) (Abu Dawud 2117)

Qaradawi’s Principles for Families

1. Marriage is the foundation of society.
A solemn covenant (Q 4:21).
2. Celibacy is rejected — ‘No monasticism in Islam.’
‘Your body has its rights, your wife has her rights.’
3. Dowries must be affordable.
Cultural dowry inflation obstructs the Sunnah.
Excessive weddings delay marriage → risk of sin.
4. Spouse selection: religion & character first.
‘Marry the religious one; otherwise you will regret it.’

Affection, Mercy & Mutual Rights

Marriage is built on mawaddah (affection) and rahmah (mercy) — Q 30:21.

The Qur’an uses ‘you’ (plural, not dual):
affection and mercy flow FROM the couple
TO the rest of the family and society.

Kindness to wives is commanded:
‘Live with them in kindness’ (Q 4:19).

The community must help the poor marry —
zakat funds may be used for this purpose.

Theme 5: Tazkiyah & Ikhlas

تَزْكِيَّةٌ | إِخْلَاصٌ | Purification and Sincerity

قَدْ أَفْلَحَ مَنْ زَكَّاهَا وَقَدْ خَابَ مَنْ دَسَّاهَا

"Successful is the one who purifies it, and failed is the one who corrupts it." — Qur'an 91:9-10

Tazkiyah — Spiritual Purification

Tazkiyah = cleansing the soul from vice and cultivating virtue.

DUAL meaning from the same root (z-k-w):

- Tazkiyat al-nafs = purification of SOUL
- Tazkiyat al-mal = purification of WEALTH

The Sunnah is 'the agreed-upon source for the purification of the soul.'

Tazkiyah is NOT passive mysticism — it is an active, knowledge-driven process of choosing virtue over vice.

Key: 'Moral life is founded on knowledge and willpower.'

Ikhlas — Sincerity in Worship

Ikhlas = purifying intention for Allah alone, free from showing off (riya') or worldly gain.

'They were not commanded except to worship Allah, sincere to Him in religion.' (Q 98:5)

Three key positions:

1. Ikhlas is the CRITERION for acceptance of deeds — not the outward magnitude. 'Actions are but by intentions.'
2. Ikhlas + ijtihad must go together — a jurist must seek truth, not fame.
3. Zakat requires ikhlas — without it, the spiritual purpose is lost.

Reflection & Discussion

Questions for the family circle

1

Which of the five themes resonates most with our family today, and why?

2

How can we practice wasatiyyah (moderation) in our daily family routine — in worship, screen time, spending, and discipline?

3

What is one practical way we can simplify our next family celebration (wedding, aqiqah, eid) following the Prophetic principle of ease?

4

Which of the three dimensions of sabr is most needed in our household right now — patience in obedience, against sin, or in hardship?

5

How do we cultivate ikhlas in our children — teaching them to do good for Allah's sake, not for praise or reward?

Closing Du'a

رَبَّنَا هَبْ لَنَا مِنْ أَزْوَاجِنَا وَذُرِّيَّاتِنَا قُرَّةَ أَعْيُنٍ

“Our Lord, grant us from among our spouses and offspring comfort to our eyes.”

— Qur'an 25:74

These five themes — good character, moderation, patience, family bonds, and sincere purification — are not separate topics but one integrated vision: a family rooted in faith, balanced in practice, patient in trial, bound by affection, and sincere toward Allah.
